

You have the right to:

Access

The services you require

Safe

And high quality care

Respect

Be treated with dignity and have your cultural needs supported

Communication

Be included in decisions and choices of care

Privacy

Confidentiality of your personal information

Comment

Provide feedback and have your concerns addressed

Advocacy

Have a support person with you